Hi..... I'm Natalie

Okay, this might sound a little unexpected. I'm usually behind the camera as a wedding photographer, but over the last two & half years, I have been dog-boarding as a host. Or you might even remember me from the Kings Langley Doorstep Photography during the lockdown. However, I must say that I thoroughly enjoyed going around and meeting lots of new people with their beloved pets.

It all started when my husband found comfort and joy in looking after dogs during his recovery from being very ill a few years ago. Since then, it's become something special to us. We adore having dogs around us. They're treated like one of the family, with loads of cuddles and undivided attention. This is where Kings Langley Dog Boarding was born.

Our Kings Langley home is a warm and spacious place where dogs can truly relax, feel loved, and be safe. We go to great lengths to ensure their stay is full of tail wags, play sessions, and snuggles. We are licensed and insured, and have taken extra steps to keep everything extremely safe and secure for your precious pups.

A kind review from Leo's owner, Sarju, says it all: "I just wanted to say that Natalie was amazing. She kept me updated with Leo, and I was delighted."

A kind review from Aria's owner, Ruth, says it all: "Natalie looked after Aria whilst We were away, and we couldn't fault her. She was extremely kind and caring, a person who clearly understands and has a love for animals, and we loved our photos."

I really look forward to meeting you & your beloved pet soon :)
